Mar 22nd

Social Library Foundation - (Spain). “The aim of the Social Library Foundation is to contribute to reducing social inequalities through cooperation with public library projects aimed at the most vulnerable segments of society: children and young people with reading comprehension problems who are often from families with difficulties; unemployed people and migrants at risk of social exclusion; older people who have contributed to society and who now are often alone, etc.” … Prize for “Public Libraries and Social Commitment” won by library in Catalonia to aid young people with social/digital divide.